CUBAN EMERGENCY PLANS
IS - CUBA

ReBuairtel 10/22/62 captioned "Security Index - Cuba" and SAC Letter 62-55 dated 10/5/62.

The identities of Cuban aliens being included on Security Index are being called to the attention of the Internal Security Division, Department of Justice. It is being suggested that Department consider making arrangements for the issuance of deportation warrants by Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS) in order that such warrants may be served on these Cuban aliens in event of a limited emergency involving the U. S. and Cuba.

Since current regulations specifically call for INS representatives to serve show cause orders at time of apprehension of aliens, the arrests and subsequent action taken against these Cuban aliens will be handled entirely by INS. In order to insure that sufficient data is available to sustain any future legal action, cases involving Cuban aliens currently on Security Index or those being considered for Security Index should receive continuous and preferred attention. Intensive inquiries aimed at developing data showing that activities of these aliens fall within criteria set forth in SAC Letter 62-55 dated 10/5/62 should be initiated. Information that could become basis for deportation proceedings should not be overlooked. All phases of these cases, including check of sources and informants known to have been connected with Cuban activities, should receive exhaustive attention so that pertinent information may be made available to Department and INS.

Be certain any change in status of these individuals is promptly brought to the attention of Bureau, as future action is based on supposition that these individuals are aliens.

In those cases where Bureau has not been furnished information concerning current activities of those recommended for Security Index, current reports should be submitted to reach Bureau within 15 days of receipt of this communication.

SECURITY INDEX - CUBA

100-00-960

As a result of the October, 1962, Cuban crisis, Bureau issued SAC Letter 62-55 dated 10/5/62 setting forth revised criteria for inclusion of aliens on the Security Index (SI). This SAC Letter complemented standards previously outlined in SAC Letter 60-54.

Subsequent thereto, the field has substantially increased the number of individuals included in the Cuban Special Section of the SI indicating a penetrating analysis followed by prompt and thorough investigation on the part of respective field offices. This commendable trend should be continued and individual cases closely followed to insure that the Bureau's obligations are being met.

A recent review by the Bureau of cases wherein individuals have recently been placed on the SI (Cuban Special Section) reveals, however, that in many instances correspondence to the field has been necessary due to the transmission of faulty, inadequate or incorrect, succinct summaries attached to FD-122s recommending subjects for inclusion on the SI. It is recognized that the Bureau may not always concur with the field's recommendation; however, the following observations are being furnished offices handling the majority of the Bureau's work in this category for assistance and future guidance.

Letter to Baltimore
Re: SECURITY INDEX - CUBA
100-358086-64

Instructions concerning the handling of FD-122s are found in Section 87D beginning on page 47 of the Manual of Instructions. Each agent submitting recommendations in this regard should thoroughly review and/or be knowledgeable concerning the information set forth therein.

In addition, precise criteria which qualify the subject for SI should be determined from above SAC Letters. First paragraph of succinct summary should include citizenship data followed by a summary of pertinent facts sufficient to justify the recommendation. It is not desired that a complete history of subject's subversive activities be included in succinct summary. This will have been previously furnished to Bureau in report form.

Conversely, information indicating subject is an officer or official of a pro-Castro organization such as Fair Play for Cuba Committee, Casa Cuba Club, etc., should be specifically included in succinct summary. In some instances, information of this type has been reported, but omitted from succinct summary even though pertinent to subject's inclusion on SI.

Dates of pertinent activity should also be set forth so that it may be determined whether subject's activities indicate pro-Castro sympathy subsequent to 10/1/60.

It is also desired that a thumbnail documentation of pertinent organizations and/or publications be appropriately included in succinct summary so that summary will stand on its own. Short phrases such as a pro-Castro organization, a communist publication, a pro-Cuban organization sympathetic to the present Cuban regime, a newspaper published in Cuba, etc., are sufficient. Appendix pages or full documentation are not necessary or desirable.

Recipients should also bear in mind the necessity to show the extent of subject's participation in and/or sympathy toward pro-Castro activities other than mere attendance at meetings when considering a subject for SI. In instances where it is felt the information presently available and reported to the Bureau qualifies subject for SI, an appropriate SI recommendation should be promptly furnished to the Bureau, even though the investigation of subject has not been completed.

Letter to Baltimore
Re: SECURITY INDEX - CUBA

With regard to detcom tabbing of SI subjects the Bureau does not feel that pro-Cuban subjects who have merely participated in peaceful demonstrations or picketing should be included in this category in the absence of positive information indicating leadership on the part of a subject. Recipients are referred to Section 87D (c) II, page 63 of Manual of Instructions regarding proper administrative handling of detcom tabbing, specifically noting that a separate attached memorandum to the FD-122 and succinct summary is required.

Following a subject's inclusion on SI, subsequent reports should also set forth on administrative page (FD-305, Item 10) the specific activities warranting subject's retention on SI. General statements such as "The subject's activities continue to be inimical to the internal security of the U. S.," "Subject continues to exhibit pro-Castro tendencies," etc., are not desirable or responsive in this regard.

The above observations should be thoroughly discussed by recipient offices with all Agents handling pro-Castro investigations and should be borne in mind in the future handling of pro-Cuban SI subjects.
